

Moodle Moot 2010 Workshop Programme

Wednesday 14th April (Afternoon)

Afternoon Parallel Workshop Programme 2.00 – 3.00

Workshop 1	G16	Workshop 2	G30	Workshop 3	G22	Workshop 4	G26	Workshop 5	Beveridge Hall
Moodle Showcase This workshop provides a range of exciting projects by practitioners from across various sectors. Presenters: Peter Kilcoyne - Working with computer aid to support Moodle developments in Africa Natalya Nikiforova - EMA-4-Moodle – an international project promoting language learning and intercultural communication Jason Platts – Refences and bibliographic management within Moodle Sarah Lloyd-Winder - Moodle for students on the Autistic Spectrum		Administering Moodle implementation Presenters: James Strong - Enterprise Moodle this is a must for anyone contemplating operating a large or business critical environment with presentations by Moodle partners experienced in large-scale delivery Alex Buchner - Large scale Moodle Networks		Moodle as a catalyst for change This workshop brings together two very interesting examples of where Moodle has had a transformative effect for an organisation. The Foyer Federation is a government flagship project for young homeless people, and Westminster have bought about significant and unplanned efficiencies... Presenters: Colin Falconer - MyNAV Project + plus some practitioners. Max Morton and Esam Baboukhan - City of Westminster College		Using e-Portfolios This workshop explores e-Portfolios; what they do and how they can be used. Leading exponents will provide a demonstration on how they use e-Portfolios. Presenters: Samantha Moss - Our Mahara 'Honeymoon' Angela Jay (cs) - Integration of Mahara and Moodle		Moodle & Staff Development Presenters: Miles Berry - Teaching teachers Elearning through Moodle Paul Jennings - A different approach to staff training? Viorica Lucuta – E-learning and teacher training in Redbridge college Gillian McCalden - Learning Moodle in Moodle	